Tufts University Art Gallery Sixth Annual Juried Summer Exhibition
June 4–August 2, 2009

Public Opening Reception: Thursday, June 4, 5:30-8:30pm
(many of the artists will be present)

MEDFORD, MA – The Tufts University Art Gallery proudly presents The Sixth Annual Juried Summer Exhibition on view in the Tisch Gallery from June 4 to August 2, 2009.

A year after celebrating its fifth annual exhibition by featuring five site-specific installations, the Tufts University Art Gallery went "back to basics" in 2009 with an open call to all professional artists living and/or with a studio in three of Tufts' host communities (Grafton, Medford, and Somerville). In an effort to garner the most diverse and accomplished group of artists, Tufts waived its policy by which artists who had participated in a summer exhibition in either of the preceding two years were ineligible to apply. The 2009 call yielded 90 submissions, a response emblematic of the area's vital arts scene. The 36 selected artists represent a variety of media, styles and themes (please see next page for a full roster of participating artists). Among these artists are familiar names pursuing new directions and newcomers who submitted for the first time this year. The arrangement of the art in the gallery space will arrange works to inspire dialogue and create opportunities for close examination and comparison.

This summer, Tufts will offer insight into each participating artist through a special cell-phone tour. Starting June 4, visitors can dial 1-617-449-7520, listen to a brief introduction, and self-select the stops to which they want to listen. Visitors will hear, often in the artist's own voice, about the artist's inspirations, intentions, and techniques.

The Annual Juried Summer Exhibition continues to be a valued showcase in the Tufts University Art Gallery's exhibition schedule and is an important barometer of the vitality of the arts in Tufts University's host communities. Each year, the University welcomes the opportunity to honor the local artists who comprise one of our most significant constituencies. In six years, the gallery has received more than 350 submissions and proudly exhibited the work of over 90 artists (about a dozen of whom have exhibited with Tufts more than once).
